A HEARTFELT NOTE OF GRATITUDE AFTER OUR CHRISTMAS CELEBRATIONS

My dear parishioners,

As we continue to celebrate the Christmas season and look ahead to the New Year, I want to express my deepest and most heartfelt gratitude to all of you who made our Christmas Masses and celebrations so beautiful and faith filled.

The true spirit of Christmas—the joy of Christ's birth and the warmth of our community—was truly evident throughout the season.

- To all who decorated our Church: A special thank you for the countless hours spent adorning our altar, sanctuary, and grounds. The beautiful decorations created a welcoming and sacred space for all to worship and reflect on the Nativity.
- To our liturgical ministers: Thank you to the altar servers, lectors, musicians, cantors, and choir members. Your dedicated service and beautiful music elevated our liturgies and helped us all to pray and experience the presence of God more deeply.
- To our dedicated volunteers: For all those who worked quietly behind the scenes—our cleaning team, parish staff, and everyone who helped organize events and ensure smooth operations—your efforts do not go unnoticed. The parish functions because of your selfless service.
- To all who offered their generosity: I am deeply grateful for your generous contributions to our Christmas collections, and the gifts you shared with one another. I'd like to mention Edith and Marco, now in Mexico who donated the outdoor Nativity. Your stewardship reflects the true appreciation for the gift of our Catholic faith and our parish family.

Your love, devotion, and sacrifice are a testament to your appreciation for our shared faith. I am truly blessed to be the shepherd of such a vibrant and loving community.

May the Baby Jesus bless you abundantly with His peace, joy, and love throughout the New Year, and may you continue to experience His presence in your daily lives.

Fr Alessandro

THE THEOLOGY OF ST JOHN HENRY NEWMAN & ITS RELEVANCE FOR TODAY'S CHURCH

Tuesday 20 January, 5.30pm

In celebration of St John Henry Newman's importance for Catholic education, the Margaret Beaufort Institute, Cambridge, together with the Newman Association, has developed a six-session short course designed to deepen your understanding of key themes in Newman's theology and their relevance for the Church today.

The course will be team-taught by leading theologians and delivered live online, one Tuesday evening each month.

OTHER

POPE LEO XIV has chosen Bishop Richard Moth of Arundel and Brighton to be the next Archbishop of Westminster when Cardinal Nichols retires. Bishop Moth is to be installed as 12th Archbishop of Westminster on 14 February next year. Please keep him and the retiring Archbishop, in your prayers at this time.

NEURODIVERSITY & FAITH RESEARCH

The Catholic Bishops Conference of England & Wales, and Birmingham Newman University are conducting research into Neurodiversity and our Faith. If you are an adult neurodivergent Catholic or a caregiver for such a person, they would like to hear from you. Your experiences will help them to become more inclusive and responsive to your needs. To find out more and to complete a short survey, please visit www.godwhospeaks.uk/neurodivergentcatholic-surveys

CURIOSITY ABOUT CHRISTMAS TIME: It's a period of celebration, reflection, and togetherness, encompassing Advent, Christmas Day, and the festive days following, called Yuletide or Christmastide. The Twelve Days of Christmas, lasts 12 days, from 25 December to 5 January, the latter date being named as Twelfth Night. These traditional dates are adhered to by the Lutheran Church and the Anglican Church. In the "usus antiquior" of the Roman rite, per the general rubrics of the Roman Breviary, "Christmastide" includes both "the season of Christmas" (the 12 days seen earlier) and "the season of Epiphany," which is the eight days from the Epiphany on Jan. 6 to the commemoration of the Baptism of the Lord on Jan. 13. What is now called the season of Epiphany was, until 1955, observed as the Octave of the Epiphany.

But here it is the surprise!!! Candlemas, or the feast of the Presentation of the Lord, is Feb. 2. On this day, many Catholics bring candles to the church to be blessed. They can then light these candles at home during prayer or difficult times as a symbol of Jesus Christ, the light of the world.

Candlemas is the last day that the Marian hymn "Alma Redemptoris Mater" is sung at the end of the night prayer of the Divine Office.

The "Alma Redemptoris Mater" is used from the beginning of Advent through Feb. 2, and so Candlemas has come to be associated with the close of the Christmas season.

So what is the exact right time to observe the end of the Christmas season? That is largely a personal call based on your own traditions, customs, practical matters, and other factors. For safety reasons, I recommend that you take your tree down as soon as it starts shedding a lot of needles, but other than that, there's an argument for leaving things up as late as Feb. 2. Of course, your neighbours may disagree.

Happy Christmas Season!

PRAYER AT CHRISTMAS TIME:

Lord, in this holy season of prayer and song and laughter, we praise you for the great wonders you have sent us: for shining star and angel's song, for infant's cry in lowly manger. We praise you for the Word made flesh in a little Child. We behold his glory, and are bathed in its radiance.

Be with us as we sing the ironies of Christmas, the incomprehensible comprehended, the poetry made hard fact, the helpless Babe who cracks the world asunder. We kneel before you shepherds, innkeepers, wise men. Help us to rise bigger than we are. Amen.

Entering the New Year 2026!

God of all time,
help us enter the New Year quietly,
thoughtful of who we are to ourselves and to others,
mindful that our steps make an impact
and our words carry power.
May we walk gently.
May we speak only after we have listened well.

Creator of all life,
help us enter the New Year reverently, aware that you have endowed every creature and plant, every person and habitat with beauty and purpose.
May we regard the world with tenderness.
May we honour rather than destroy.
Lover of all souls,
help us enter the New Year joyfully,
willing to laugh and dance and dream, remembering our many gifts with thanks and looking forward to blessings yet to come.
May we welcome your lavish love.
May we cast off the small, vindictive god our fears have made.
May the grace and peace of Christ bless us now and in the days ahead.

- Vinita Hampton Wright

A PRAYER TO ST. THOMAS

MORE, counselor of law and statesman of integrity, merry martyr and most human of saints!

PRAY that, for the glory of GOD and in the pursuit of His justice, I may be trustworthy with confidences, keen in study, accurate in analysis, correct in conclusion, able in argument, loyal to clients, honest with all, courteous to adversaries, ever attentive to conscience. Sit with me at my desk and listen with me to my clients' tales. Read with me in my library and stand always beside me so that today I shall not, to win a point, lose my soul. PRAY that my family may find in me what yours found in you: friendship and courage, cheerfulness and charity, diligence in duties, counsel in adversity, patience in pain—their good servant, and God's first. AMEN.

©Center for Thomas More Studies With ecclesiastical approval Bishop Joseph A. Galante March 5, 2003 This prayer is an adaption of "An Appeal to St. Thomas More" by Henry Bender, Jr., published in The Catholic Mind, Feb. 1951.

PRAYER FOR SPIRITUAL COMMUNION to be used especially by those not receiving the Eucharist.

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and I unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.
